Poornima Kamath

PROFILE

Poornima has over 12 years of experience as a healthcare professional, working in 3 different countries – USA, Canada and India. She is making a career transition to product management, out of a deep understanding of the limitations and potential areas of growth in healthcare software. She has actively pursued AI and data analytics certifications to prepare for this next phase.

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS & EDUCATION

• Stanford Online AI in Healthcare (including 5 certificate courses - completed in January 2024)
• Google - Agile Project Management (November 2023)
• Google Analytics Certification (September 2023)
• Coursera's AI for Everyone (September 2022)
• Master of Science in Occupational Therapy (Tufts University, Boston MA - May 2013)

EXPERIENCE

Startup Co-Founder & Product Manager at Tinny Minny – December 2023-Present
• Identified a critical gap in childcare accessibility for parents; conceptualized and led the development of an innovative digital platform to streamline childcare search process
• Collaborated with technical co-founder to design and launch a user-friendly platform, managing data collection, feature prioritization, market analysis and project timelines
• Enhanced user engagement by integrating feedback mechanisms into the platform, continuously improving service and expanding user base
• Managed ideation, documentation and collaboration asynchronously using tools like JustinMind, Notion, Discord

Career Transition Education – February 2023 – November 2023

Occupational Therapy Clinical Advisor with WorkSafe BC, Richmond — 2021-2023
• Provided clinical opinions on complex medical situations to assist case managers in final decision making on claims
• Worked on tasks that require in-depth problem analysis, collaboration with cross functional teams and meeting short deadlines

Occupational Therapist — 2010 -2021
(FunctionAbility Rehab Services, Vancouver; Alta Bates Hospital, Oakland; Natividad Sam Karas ARU, Salinas; T.N.M.C. Nair Hospital, Mumbai)
• Extensive work experience in fast paced, acute rehabilitation hospitals involving regular collaboration with muti-disciplinary professionals
• Extensive experience as a clinical educator, mentor for therapists and team leader for case management
• Familiarity with a variety of EHR software with a keen awareness of friction points, redundancies and pain points for users
• Excellent communication skills, both written and verbal with clinical and non-clinical personnel
• Provided leadership in customizing documentation for different disciplines in an acute inpatient hospital
• Provided leadership in initiating a student skills lab while onboarding practicum students